	03-01-2005 Shri T.K.Tiwari Learned Counsel for the petitioner. Heard. The petitioner has preferred this petition for a direction to respondents 2 and 3 to act in accordance with law since as per the land revenue code they are obliged to pass order of mutation on the instruments used in transfer of the property. However, an information has been given to the petitioner regarding the execution of transfer deed of Annexure P-1 but the respondents are not taking any steps which they are otherwise legally ~~advised~~ obliged to do. On a specific query counsel for the petitioner whether any complaint / representation was preferred by the petitioner before approaching this Court, the answer was in negative. Under these circumstances the petition is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to approach the higher authorities responsible to supervise the acts of their subordinate before approaching this Court. Ordered accordingly. Sd/- DHIRENDRA MISHRA Judge
